March 22, 2019

Dear HFA Families,

As you are aware, Holy Family has lost 11 school days so far due to weather. We are still looking at the calendar to plan our graduations and last day of school, however in order to make up for one of the weather related cancellations we will have school on Monday, April 22nd. Hazleton Area School District will be closed so we will not have transportation either to or from school that day. We know that potentially March and early April could bring an unexpected snow storm that may add to our total. We appreciate your understanding with the change to our schedule and I wanted to make you aware in advance so you can make the necessary arrangements to have your child present on this day.

Sincerely,

Mr. Jason Tribbet
